Terms and conditions for taking part in the ClearWater Wilderness Trail Transformation Program

Registration	Registration takes place by signing up and agreeing to the terms and conditions. Subsequently, the participant will receive an invoice for the program. Registration for the program is accepted by written confirmation of participation from ClearWater and upon receipt by ClearWater of the total amount.
Participants	In addition to the facilitator(s), there is room for a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 8 participants per trail. ClearWater may cancel participation of the program if there are fewer participants than the minimum number.
Liability/Insurance	ClearWater shall exercise as much care as possible with respect to the organisation and content of the program. This also applies to the hiring of guides and the local organisation that provides them. However, ClearWater shall not be liable for any damage in connection with the (pre- and/or post-) program, including the trail and/or the acts or omissions of the guides and/or the local organisation. This exclusion also applies to all possible health and safety risks and loss/damage of luggage. But not in case of intent or deliberate recklessness and in case of damage caused by death or injury of the participant. The participant must take out appropriate travel and cancellation insurance to cover the risks associated with stays in the wilderness and/or with mountaineering (if applicable) off the beaten track (such as search, rescue, etc.). Those risks are discussed during the introductory group workshop at the start of the program. ClearWater is not liable for losses covered by the participant's insurance policies, such as travel, health, and cancellation insurance. The participant should make sure that his/her mental and physical condition allows him/her to participate in the program.
Cancellation	If the participant must unexpectedly cancel participation in the program, the following cancellation conditions apply: • cancellation between 2 and 4 months before departure: 50% of the trail costs • less than 2 months before departure: 100% of the trail costs The cancellation must be made in writing. If the participant would like another participant to take his/her place, an administration fee of € 100, - excl. VAT will apply. This participant will be admitted to the program on condition that the facilitator agrees. ClearWater reserves the right to reject the proposed replacement.
Change to the terms and conditions	ClearWater may amend these terms and conditions for important reasons.
